To ensure we can provide you with the best possible service for your event, please take a moment to review our catering logistics and policies.

We proudly offer catering services within a 20-mile radius of our Bozzelli's Deli location. Should your event be situated outside this area, we encourage you to contact us directly to discuss potential accommodations.

For all catering orders, a delivery fee ranging from $25 to $150 will apply, determined by the distance to your event location within our service radius. For your complete convenience, we also offer comprehensive setup and cleanup services for your catered event. This optional service is available for a flat fee of $250, allowing you to focus on enjoying your event while we handle the details.

Regarding booking, we kindly request at least 24 hours' notice for most catering orders. For larger or more customized events, providing as much advance notice as possible will help us ensure we can perfectly meet your needs; please reach out to discuss your specific requirements.

We understand that plans can sometimes change. If you need to cancel your catering order, please provide us with at least 24 hours' notice to avoid any charges. Cancellations made with less than 24 hours' notice will unfortunately be subject to the full order price. To initiate a cancellation, please contact us directly by phone.
